Health, Social Security and Housing Scrutiny Panel to meet with the Health Minister for its first Quarterly Public Hearing

The Health, Social Security and Housing Panel will be meeting with the Minister for Health and Social Services for its first quarterly Public Hearing.

Quarterly Hearings are a good way for Panels to become familiar with what is happening within each department, and in order to decide what possible topics they may consider for future reviews.

Here are the details below:

Witness: Minister for Health and Social Services
Venue: Le Capelain room, States Building
Date: 27th January 2012
Time: 11:30 – 12:30
