

SCRUTINY

Date: 14th February 2012

Health, Social Security and Housing Scrutiny Panel to meet with the Minister for Social Security for a Quarterly Public Hearing

The Health, Social Security and Housing Panel will be meeting with the Minister for Social Security for a quarterly Public Hearing this Friday (17th February).

The Panel will be questioning the Minister on key issues which include the Back to Work programme, income support and contribution levels.

The quarterly Hearing will allow the Panel to familiarise itself with Departmental business, and help it to decide what possible topics it may consider for future reviews.

Deputy Kristina Moore, Chairman of the Panel said, "This will be the first time we meet with the Minister in a Public Hearing environment and we look forward to questioning him on the work of his department."

The details of the Public Hearing are as follows:

Witness: Minister for Social Security
Venue: Le Capelain room, States Building
Date: 17th February 2012
Time: 1:30 – 2:30

Ends